A strong summer lineup

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

David Wirtschafter
rabbiw@lextai.org

In organizations such as educational institutions, summer is marked by shift in focus from day-to-day tasks to planning for the coming year. For others, it's by far the busiest season; think summer camps, travel programs, or music and theater festivals. Congregational life has an element of both. We take a break from Religious School and offer fewer programs, but that is far different from putting everything on pause. Here are just a few important things going on in the next few weeks.

First, a reminder that in the summer, Friday services begin at 6 p.m. Our Saturday morning study sessions, Kollel and Torah Study, continue at 9 and 11 a.m. respectively unless otherwise noted. If you prefer morning to evening services then the next few weeks are terrific for you. Saturday B'nai mitzvah services will celebrate simchas for the Weinstein Family on July 11, the Qualls Family on Aug. 8 and the Fine Family on Aug. 22. These services are open to everyone in our congregation.

Mid-July provides a powerful study in contrast.

HIGH SCHOOL

Seth Fine, son of Jamie and Brad Fine, graduated in June from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. He will attend the Eastern Kentucky University, where he plans to major in PGA golf management.

Reece Goldman, son of Arthur Goldman and Amanda Goldman, graduated in June from Henry Clay High School. He will attend Bluegrass Community and Technical School with plans to study fire science.

Sophie Hirschowitz, daughter of Edward Hirschowitz and Alison Iser, graduated in June from Henry Clay High School. She will attend Boston College.

Madeline "Rosie" Katz, daughter of Doug and Linda Katz, graduated from Lafayette High School in June. She is spending the summer as a counselor at Goldman Union Camp Institute before heading to Israel in September to study dance on a Masa grant as part of the International Dance Journey Program at Kibbutz Contemporary Dance Company.

Lucie Pitman, daughter of Beth and Jason Pitman, graduated in May from Sayre School. She will attend Berry College in Mount Berry, Ga., where she will major in animal science and play on the school's NCAA Division III women's soccer team.

Corinne Yelowitz, daughter of Aaron Yelowitz and Beth Yelowitz, graduated in June from Henry Clay High School. She will attend DePaul University in Chicago, majoring in biological sciences.

COLLEGE

Irving Morris, son of Ann and David Morris, graduated in May from Yale University in New Haven, Conn., with a bachelor of arts degree in chemistry. He received the Richard U. Light Fellowship from Yale to study language and culture in South Korea next academic year. He is spending the summer as an assistant teacher at the Bates Dance Festival in Maine.

Abe Nelson, son of Deb and Pete Nelson, graduated in May from Rice University in Houston with a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering. He will be working in Raleigh, N.C., in water management.

POST-GRADUATE SCHOOL

Sara Suhl, daughter of Sylvia Cerel-Suhl and Jerry Suhl, graduated from medical school at Columbia University in New York with an M.D. and a master's degree in bioinformatics. She will intern at Memorial Sloane Kettering Hospital followed by a dermatology residency at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, both in New York.

Max Young, son of Rebecca and Joe Young, graduated in May from the University of South Carolina Joseph F. Rice School of Law with a juris doctor degree. His specialty is data privacy, cyber security and AI. He is preparing to take the bar exam.

Todah rabah – I am grateful

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dr. Mark Schachman
endoshack@aol.com

As I conclude my two-year term as president of Temple Adath Israel, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to every member of our temple community. Serving as your president has been an honor and privilege, and I am thankful for the trust, support and encouragement you have given me throughout this journey.

When I accepted this responsibility two years ago, I did so with humility and a sincere desire to serve TAI and its members. I knew that leading such a vibrant and dedicated community would come with challenges, but I also knew I would not be alone. Time and again, I witnessed the strength of our collective spirit, the generosity of our volunteers, and the unwavering devotion that makes TAI such a special place.

Over the past two years, we have celebrated festivals, organized educational events, welcomed new families and strengthened the bonds that unite us. None of these accomplishments would have been possible without the countless volunteers who generously contributed their time, talents, and resources. Whether you helped prepare meals, organize events, maintain the temple garden, teach our children or support our activities in any way, your dedication has made a lasting impact.

I am especially grateful to the members of our Board of Directors, committee leaders, clergy, administrative staff, musical directors and volunteers who work tirelessly behind the scenes. Their commitment, wisdom and teamwork made it possible to achieve our goals. Every success we enjoyed was the result of a collective effort, and I am proud of what we accomplished together.

While no leadership journey is perfect, I have always tried to act in the best interest of our temple and community. I appreciate your patience, understanding and constructive feedback along the way. Your support allowed me to grow as a leader and as an individual.

Thank you once again for allowing me to serve as your president. It has been a privilege and a blessing that I will always cherish. I look forward to continuing to serve our temple in new ways and remaining an active member of this wonderful community.

"How strange we are in the world, and how presumptuous our doings! Only one response can maintain us: gratefulness for witnessing the wonder, for the gift of our unearned right to serve, to adore, and to fulfill. It is gratefulness which makes the soul great."

Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel

Thursday, July 16, is a day of construction. We will be joining a communitywide Habitat for Humanity build. Safe, affordable and reliable housing is a key element of maintaining our community. For those who love to work with your hands and enjoy an outdoor project, this is a particularly good opportunity for you. Sign up at bit.ly/LexHabitat2026.

Conversely, July 22 is a moment to think about destruction. Tisha B'av, the 9th day of Av, commemorates the destruction of the Temples in Jerusalem. The Book of Lamentations is chanted. We are encouraged to sit on the floor of the sanctuary. Our regular lighting is turned off or down as the scroll is read by flashlight or candlelight. This year's Tisha B'Av observance will start at 8:45 p.m. Wednesday, July 22 at TAI.

Another important summer gathering is our annual meeting at 11 a.m. Sunday, July 19. Please join us in thanking the outgoing board and welcoming the new one. The meeting is also a good opportunity to learn more about our goals, ask helpful questions, and become better informed about our long-range vision. If there is a committee you are interested in or a dimension of temple life you are curious about, the annual meeting provides a terrific context to discuss these things.

Along with staff and our volunteer leadership, I encourage you to take full advantage of what summer has to offer and encourage friends and family to do likewise.

FROM SISTERHOOD

Elissa Weinstein, President
taisisterhoodpresident@gmail.com

Shalom Sisters! As we enter a new season together, there is no better time to become part of our Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood community. TAI Sisterhood is more than an organization – it is a circle of friendship, support, learning and service that enriches our congregation and our lives.

Through meaningful programs, social gatherings, volunteer opportunities and Jewish learning, TAI Sisterhood creates connections across generations and strengthens our shared commitment to Jewish values. Whether you are new to our congregation or have been a member for years, there is a place for you.

Come be part of the Season of Sisterhood – we look forward to welcoming you!

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Elissa Weinstein, Director
elissa@lextai.org

Shalom! Religious School plans to kick off the 2026-27 school year on Sunday, Sept. 13, which also coincides with Rosh Hashanah. As we begin anew, so will our academic year as we welcome students and families for another year of learning, growth and community. We'll start by gathering at Jacobson Park for a combination First Day of Religious School/ Family Rosh Hashanah experience. We can't wait to welcome new families and faces, and see how much our returning students have grown over the summer!

Our theme this year is "My Jewish Traditions." Throughout the year, we will be discovering the different traditions that make our students and families unique.

Our Rosh Hashanah Honey Sale to benefit Religious School will be starting soon as well. It is a lovely way to wish friends and family a sweet and special New Year or to gift to anyone who loves locally sourced honey. (Ours comes from Hosey Honey in Midway.)

We are looking forward to an exciting and meaningful year of learning together. Registration information and more details about the first day of school will go out in early August.

Until then, enjoy your summer!

MUSIC NOTES

Lauren Hill, Music Coordinator lhill4646@gmail.com

I am pretty tired. But it's good tired. The kind of tired that comes from hard work that matters. On a recent Monday, though, I was just tired. The kind of tired that makes your shoulders creep up to your chin, and you aren't exactly sure why you drove wherever it is you ended up driving.

I found myself in a Walgreens parking lot. I had been headed to Costco, but I couldn't face the traffic, the parking lot or the search for my Costco card. But I needed "snacks" for a Holocaust education seminar. (Don't underestimate the complexity of choosing snacks for other people. Sweet or salty? Chocolate? Will it melt in the car? Fit my budget? It's a lot.)

As I entered the store all up in my thoughts, I heard the most haunting melody. Walking through the aisles, the music relaxed my shoulders and cleared my head. And just as I reached into my pocket to get my phone to use that app that identifies the artist, the vocals started. I heard, "Yitgadal, v'yitkadash … ." And, of course, it was not coming from the corporate Walgreens speakers, but from that phone in my pocket. I had accidentally triggered my High Holy Days playlist.

The tune was Joey Weisenberg's "L'eila," a creative setting of Kaddish. Use the QR code at right to give it a listen. You can hear it again on Kol Nidre when Jerry Suhl and I will try to do it justice. May it bring you whatever kind of peace you need, too.

PS: Come sing with us! Here's the schedule:

- July 10, 11: Jerry Suhl and Lauren Hill
- July 17: Aviva and Dr. Lew Bowling
- July 24: Shir Adat
- July 31: Lauren Hill and Harold Sherman
- Aug. 7, 8: Lauren Hill and Harold Sherman
- Aug. 14: Shir Adat
- Aug. 21, 22: Jerry Suhl and Lauren Hill
- Aug. 28: Aviva and Dr. Lew Bowling

TAI MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Adath Israel is a Reform Jewish congregation linked to a tradition of welcoming those searching for a community committed to honoring the dignity we all share as children of the one God by embracing these enduring Jewish values: AVODAH (Worship); TALMUD TORAH (Torah Study); TZEDEK (Social Justice); and KEHILAH (Community). Our mission is to inspire our congregants' Jewish engagement and to ensure a vibrant Jewish present and future by nurturing the many generations of our community. We share a commitment to the Reform Jewish foundational beliefs of furthering individual and communal spiritual growth, while recognizing a range of personal philosophies, practices and needs. We are the community center through which our families can celebrate faith, justice, and the blessings of family lives present and future.
